SLOW FREIGHTS CAUSE LOCAL SUGAR FAMINE

Slow freight movement is causing a near sugar famine in Pine Bluff and Arkansas. There is no sugar in the hands of local wholesalers and jobbers and the retailers have only a small quantity. Retailers refuse to sell more than $2 worth of sugar to a party, so as to avoid the famine. Several car loads of sugar to the wholesalers and jobbers have been due several days and are expected any day. This condition practically prevails over the entire state.

Because of the increase in the cost of foodstuff the S. J. Bumpass and the Stead grocery companies have announced they will do business on a cash basis only from now on.

PINE BLUFF BOYS ARE SLOW TO ENTER ARMY

Corporal Cooper Gets Instructions to Use Every Effort to Fill Banks, and Also Accept Negroes.

Corporal C. C. Cooper, recruiting officer in the United States army, who established a recruiting office in the city Tuesday, reports only five applications to join the army have been received. Of the five applications three were turned down and the two who passed did not enlist, but promised to come back Saturday.

Enlistments should come in much faster here, it is admitted. According to the instructions from the general staff of the United States army, Pine Bluff should furnish 1 per cent of its population, or 270 men, for enlistment in the regular army. This rule prevails in all the cities of the United States. All accepted applicants will be furnished transportation to Little Rock.

Wanting to fill up the existing four regiments of negroes, Adjutant General McCain, of the regular army, has given Corporal Cooper orders to start enlisting negroes here. All negroes between the ages of 18 and 40 years will be accepted.

LAND BANKS ASSIST IN FOOD CAMPAIGN

Bankers as a Class Said to Stand Ready and Willing to Lend Every Assistance Possible.

That every department of the federal government is heartily engaged in the campaign for greater production and conservation of food and feedstuffs, is indicated in the following letter sent out by the St. Louis land bank, which shows that individual banks will lend every aid possible in the movement:

"The American war food situation and Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carl Vrooman's tour of the south and west, bringing us a message from President Wilson, must convince us that each individual as well as every class, should show patriotism by attention to preparedness; by doing a full share to forestall in America the hunger calamity that has befallen Germany."

"The federal land bank, by lowering interest rates and arranging for long time loans, relieves the farmer of worry, and thus sharpens his mind and speeds up his physical energies. The local bankers can co-operate with us, and we feel certain they will, by cheerfully granting temporary assistance to the farmer whose obligations mature on a date earlier than can be reached by him through his national farm loan association. The farmer may need the money for fertilizer, which would increase the crop yield; or for improved implements, or for an additional team which would allow him to widen his cultivated acreage; or he may need fencing so that he can get his herd of hogs on to grass; and by these means swell the total of food produced. It is a patriotic act to help him and thus increase his output."

"So far as intervention is in the hands of this federal land bank, the bankers, as a class, stand ready and willing to grant this help, co-operation by our fellow bankers throughout the farming districts will be appreciated by us, and would prove their patriotism to all observers in a most convincing manner. In the meantime the federal land bank of St. Louis has reached the point of approved forms for carrying on the business, and it only remains to have them printed and distributed when the applicants for this bank will be engaged in visits to farm loan associations for the purpose of final approval of loans."

"It is a good deal the same in the case of a steamship. She is built under contract guaranteeing so many miles an hour, but no shipbuilding concern would think of submitting a new boat to a trial run until after her engines had ample time to 'wear in.' It should be the same with motor cars. The better a car is built, the more care should be exercised when the motor is new."

"Careful handling of a car when new means a better and smoother engine and fewer repair bills."

SOUTHERNERS, ENROLL FOR THE NATIONAL FOOD CRUSADE!

If your patriotism means more to you than cotton; if you are willing to do your part to keep the families of the South from starving when military necessity has commandeered the railroads; if you will raise a garden, or corn, or wheat, or peas, or beans, or other foods; if you will make it easier for another to do so by giving him seed, credit or other help; if in any other way you will answer the stern demand that the South feed itself, sign this pledge.

Send it to the Chamber of Commerce, Pine Bluff. Then act.

The pledge follows:
In view of the pressing military necessity of increasing the food production of the South and the nation, so as to release food for our army and our allies in our common struggle against Prussian autocracy and militarism, I hereby pledge myself to do my bit, as follows:

My cotton acreage 1916 was _____ acres.

My cotton acreage 1917 _____ acres.

My corn acreage 1916 was _____ acres.

My corn acreage 1917 _____ acres.

I will plant _____ acres in peas.

I will plant _____ acres in beans.

I will plant _____ acres in sorghum.

I will plant _____ acres in peanuts.

REPORTS OF MARKETS

COTTON—GRAIN—LIVESTOCK.

New York Cotton.
New York, April 18.—The cotton market was comparatively quiet early today. Cables were disappointing from a bullish standpoint and the opening here was 16 1/2 points lower. Scattered selling was also encountered by the more favorable view of weather conditions and reports that the market for marine risks was firmer, owing to unofficial advice that a large freighter had been sunk off the coast of France. May contracts sold off 20.15c, or 15 points under last night's close. The easier tone of Liverpool was attributed to reports of lower freight rates and an announcement that the Teutonic vessels seized in this country would be put into commission as rapidly as possible. There were private reports from the Southwest of freer spot offerings, but there seemed to be very few Southern selling orders around the local ring.

New Orleans Cotton.
New Orleans, April 18.—Poor cables caused a recession of from 16 1/2 to 30 points around the opening of the cotton market here today. A fairly good demand sprang up at the decline and at the end of the first half hour of business trading months showed a net decline of only 12 1/2 points. Warmer weather over the belt, with the absence of moisture in the eastern half, was against values. The weekly weather and crop reports from the government were regarded as colorless and they had little effect on the market. At noon the trading months were at a net decline of 14 1/2 points.

A favorable western belt forecast and reports of firmer marine war risks led to increased offerings, with May selling off to 20.08c and October to 18.52c, or 12 1/2 points net lower. Prices then steadied on covering and there were rallies of 5 or 6 points during the middle of the day. The weekly weather report was considered about a standoff.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, April 18.—Enlarged estimates of the amount of wheat available in Canada had a bearish effect today on the market here, but efforts to buy a little May delivery disclosed that offerings were scarce and led to a sharp rally. The Canadian stock was figured as high as 116,000,000 bushels, according to some authorities, a total apparently sufficient to permit considerable importation into the United States. Excellent weather conditions also tended first to give the bears some advantage. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 3 3/4c lower, were followed by additional declines and a general upturn, although July and September were relatively easy, as compared with May.

May wheat acted very tight and advanced to $2.34, a rise of 15c from the early low point. Evidence of renewed export buying on a large scale helped to lift July as well as May. The close was unsettled, 2 1/8 1/2c net higher, with May at $2.32 1/4-2.32 1/2 and July at $1.97 1/2-1.97 5/8.

Corn declined and rallied with wheat. Trading was of a local character. After opening off the market sagged a little further and then, except for September, rose to well above yesterday's close.

Buying of May and selling of September was a feature. The close was strong at 1 7/8 3/4 3/4c net advance.

Oats averaged higher on account of large purchases for leading houses. It was inferred that some demand was from the seaboard.

Weakness of the hog market depressed provisions. Lard led the decline.
